

Beatrice D. Dane, Secretary, Maryland Women's Heritage Center. As a retired Sr Staff financial analyst of a major defense company, Bea's current goals are to give back to her community through volunteering with organizations that promote women's leadership, equity and equality. Over 34 years experience in corporate finance at IBM and Lockheed Martin (LM) Corporations, Led the implementation and administration of the financial planning software used by over 800 financial analysts at the LM federal division, Project Finance led the design, testing and implementation. Finance supervisor of the team responsible for maintaining and improving the system, and training financial analysts in its use. Other experience includes project budgeting, scheduling, and cost accounting. MBA from Marist College, NY; BS with major in accounting from Austin Peay State University, TN; 2 years hotel administration at Cornell University, NY. Memberships and Volunteer Positions: President, American Association of University Women (AAUW), Howard County MD Branch; 2014-16, Treasurer, AAUW Howard County MD Branch; 2013-14, Volunteer Docent, Maryland Women's Heritage Center, Baltimore – 2014-present, Member, Mount Vernon Belvedere Association, Baltimore, Volunteer – Flower Mart – 2014, Volunteer Road Scholar (RS) Ambassador (RS is a leading non profit educational travel organization) Maryland Director, Tennessee Walking Horse Breeders/Exhibitors Association (TWHBEA), 2005-2011, Volunteer, Day's End Farm Horse Rescue, Lisbon, MD. Volunteer, Glenwood Community and Senior Center, Glenwood, MD. Hobbies and Family: Spending time with family (husband currently employed as teacher in Howard County; son lives in Denver) Travel – US and International, Reading History