

Maria J. Darby, a seasoned fundraiser with 22 years of fund development, management, communications and board development experience in the nonprofit community, is currently the Director of Development and External Relations at Keswick. She manages Keswick's philanthropic efforts as well as its external relations activities and partnerships. During her years as an advancement professional, she has developed, implemented and cultivated philanthropic partnerships, led grassroots advocacy efforts and managed local and state government relations activities as well as developed media and community partnerships in Maryland. Ms. Darby is active in the community and is a past president of the Junior League of Baltimore, the Govanstowne Business Association and the Hampden Family Center. Ms. Darby is a LEADERSHIP Baltimore County graduate, a Leadership Washington graduate, and a Network 2000 Mentoring Program graduate. In September 2006, the Baltimore Business Journal named Ms. Darby one of Baltimore's Top 40 Under 40 professionals, and in 2009 and in 2011 she was named one of Maryland's Top 100 Women by The Daily Record. In 2012, Ms. Darby was named The Spirited Woman of Baltimore 2012 for outstanding spirit, service, dedication and commitment to excellence. She is married and lives in Baltimore City.