

ENOCH PRATT free LIBRARY
your journey starts here

Adults

Fascinating Women Buried in Baltimore's Historic Cemeteries

With photos and storytelling, we will virtually visit the gravesites of ten Baltimore women, all very different from each other, who lived during Baltimore in the 1800s. Baltimore women of the time were the backbone of families and communities. At the end of their lives, family and friends laid these women to rest in several area cemeteries, including Green Mount, Loudon Park, Mount Auburn, Baltimore Hebrew and New Cathedral. Some of their life stories were forgotten until now.

Presented by Kathi Santora, freelance writer and president of the Maryland Women's Heritage Center. She is producer of the blog, Dying to Tell Their Stories, which looks at the lives of people buried in Baltimore's cemeteries.

If you would like to attend virtually, you can access the event from the Pratt's Facebook page or YouTube page.

Presented in partnership with Maryland Women's Heritage Center.

Saturday, September 30 | 10:30 a.m.

Central Library & Virtual 400 Cathedral St.

The free educational and cultural programs at Pratt libraries are made possible by the generous support of donors to the Enoch Pratt Free Library.

prattlibrary.org